RexCon, INC.
2841 Whiting Rd.
Burlington, WI 53105

Dear Valued Customer,

We're thrilled to announce some exciting changes that will bring you even greater value and convenience!

As of April 1, 2024, RexCon, Inc's industry leading concrete equipment is now available through your local Astec concrete dealer. This means you will be supported with top-notch portable and stationary concrete batching plants, plant upgrades, and all the concrete batching accessories you need – all from a trusted source close by.

Starting July 1, 2024, RexCon concrete parts will also be available through our Astec dealer network. This simplifies your parts procurement process. When you call our parts department on July 1st or later, you'll be routed directly to your local concrete dealer for efficient service.

We appreciate your long-standing trust and business. We remain committed to providing you with the best tools and unmatched support to get your projects done efficiently and effectively. Our strong dealer network ensures you'll have:

- Local Parts Availability: Get the parts you need quickly and easily from a nearby source.
- Single Source for RexCon, Con-E-Co, and BMH: Simplify your equipment and parts needs with one trusted partner.
- Continued Support: We're still here for you! If you encounter any issues with a dealer, please let us know and we'll be happy to help.

For more information a dealer locator map is attached to this email, so you can easily find your local Astec concrete dealer. Don't hesitate to reach out to your dealer with any questions.

Of course, you can still contact us directly if you need support or assistance. Feel free to reach out to the team listed below if you have any questions.

We're confident that these changes will provide you with a more convenient and efficient way to access the concrete equipment and support you need to succeed. Thank you for choosing Astec and RexCon!

Sincerely,

The Astec Industries Team:
